Comments:

The return of Osmotherley Show post covid meant the return of the accompanying fell race. Inclusion in the Dave Parry Lets Run supported by Rab Summer Fell Race Series helped lift numbers with 107 on the start line, could of been nearer 120 if all the preentries had showed. The race starts in the showground, then takes in private estate land on the outward and return legs with the mid point of the 10.4km course the Black Hambleton peak.

In the race itself it was Cameron Taylor Individual, a regular winner in the fell race series before his move away to study who led home overall, now resident nearer the North Yorkshire Moors we may see his name appear a little more often. In the womens race it was visitor from the west side of the Pennines, Ruth Jones Salford Harriers who raced to victory and third overall, just 30 odd seconds behind Cameron and in a course record time of 43.01 beating the previous mark set by Charlotte Sanderson in 2008 of 43.44.

Andrew Collier Individual this time keeping to the designated route placed second, second in the womens race was Caroline Lambert Middlesbrough AC Mandale who continues to train and race her way back to form.

First veteran home was Graham Watt Elvet Striders who was fourth male following in Sam Leadley of Elvet Striders. Emily Baines York Knavesmire Harriers raced to third female in 15th overall, Rhona Marshal Scarborough AC claimed the first veteran ladies place.

The first three senior places and the veteran prizes for v40, v50 and v60 were provided by Rab along with their canned ale for age group and team prizes. V50 female went to Trudy Morrice Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers and v60 to Sue Haslam Scarborough AC. In the mens competition the v50 award went to Paul Peacock Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers and Barry Atkinson York Knavesmire Harriers.

Rounding up the awards, in a very tight male team competition Esk Valley Fell Club won out just from Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers by 3 points and in a good day for Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers they claimed the female team. Thank you to Rab, Lets Run and the volunteers.

Next couple of events are Ravenscar Rumble Revamped on Thursday 11th August and Bilsdale Show Race on Saturday 27th August.
